1. Chair

a. Toni gave update at the Village Council meeting as to what the Parks Commission has been working on. Showed the drawing for Wellfield Park. Village Council was very supportive and liked the ideas presented in the drawing but have no money to give to the project. Also, discussed the appointment of Rodriguez, this can be done at the April 14, 2003 Village Council meeting.

b. Toni attended the Chamber of Commerce meeting and presented the Wellfield Park drawing. They liked the ideas presented and gave $200 to help begin the project.

Menard has also received $75 both of these donations will go towards making presentation boards.

2. Zoning Officer

a. Report included

b. Warrior Creek discussed and its aesthetics is an issue, need to clean-up hillside, and timbers around play equipment.

c. Also discussed new parks ordinance and adding a Village Council Member as a voting member.

Old Business

A. Wellfield Subcommittee to meet to provide direction to Urban Foresters on presentation materials. Leeland from Urban Foresters to meet with Toni for additional direction on presentation materials. There is a three-day turn around on printing. Karen to obtain additional pictures from Egan and Tooley. Toni will contact Craig about meeting on presentation materials then subcommittee can meet.

B. Master Plan. Plan Revisions due at April 14, 2003 meeting. Parks Commission needs to commit to working towards goals outlined in the Master Plan. Plan outlines how goals are to be achieved. Goals need to be printed and laminated so that Parks Commissioners are aware of the goals and the goals must be advertised. Everything done by Parks Commission should tie into goals.
