Reports and Communication

1. Chair

Not applicable.

2. Zoning Officer

- a. Discussed letter for 2008. Beckett and Reader postponing until next year.
- b. Joe Schuring continuing to organize the installation of swings into Warrior Creek Park. Allison will check on the status.
- c. Will try to get the drawing from Bob Leighton of Wellfield Park in time for the September 4, 2003 presentation.
- d. Will supply an updated fund raiser list and some fund raising ideas. Nancy stated that "Bud" had donated T-shirts in the past that can be sold for $20.
- e. Suggested setting up an information booth during Dexter Daze, no commissioners are available to sit with it. May leave a pamphlet at the Chambers of Commerce booth.
- f. Discussed the information regarding the recreation millage. Most likely going to ask for 1.25 mills. The Recreation Millage group is seeking the support of the Parks Commission. Commission would like additional information proposal appears to be personnel based rather than program based.

Old Business

- A. Warrior Creek. No new updates.
- B. Wellfield Park. Reviewed updated breakdown of cost. Need to do further breakdown, Turner will review, final breakdown to be reviewed with Village Council. Also need to ask for money from endowment to get trees that were donated by St. Joseph's Church moved. Allison will check on the amount of money in the endowment.

- C. Lions Presentation. Reminder it is to be on September 4, 2003.
- D. Reviewed Fund Raising Letter that Allison put together. Any potential donor names should be forwarded to Allison.
- E. Also discussed the LDFA money that the Village will be receiving in 2006.
